

2018 All-Arizona Messier Marathon Liability Release

I, my heirs, agents, assigns, personal representatives interested parties, family, friends or guests accompanying me release the Saguaro Astronomy Club, its officers, organizers, the Bureau of Land Management, and the State of Arizona ("Providers") and waive any rights, claims or causes of action for personal injury or property damages of any kind arising out of any events or actions, negligent or otherwise, by Providers or other participants relating to the 2018 All-Arizona Messier Marathon ("Marathon"), whether on site or traveling to the site; and before, during, and after the event. I agree to this release and waiver regardless of my actual participation in the Marathon.

I assume all risks of damage, illness, injury or death by my participation or presence at the site and I acknowledge that the desert site has its own natural and man-made hazards, including, but not limited, to animals, plants, terrain, lack of water, lack of lights at night, weather and unimproved road conditions. I, my heirs, agents, assigns personal representatives interested parties, family, friends or guests accompanying me release and waive any rights, claims or causes of action against the Providers, negligent or otherwise, for any damage or injury arising out of such hazards.

This release is binding on me personally, as well as upon my heirs, agents, assigns, personal representatives interested parties, family, friends or guests accompanying me.

All adults 18 and older must sign this release, and sign for children under eighteen in their care.
